Military Health System

TRICARE 2000

Dawn of a New Century for The Military Health System

Dr. Sue Bailey
Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs

Gathering our Forces

- The President
- The Secretary of Defense
- The Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff
- Defense Medical Oversight Committee

Building TRICARE 2000

Military Health System

Completed

- Active Duty Prime Remote
- Continuous Enrollment
- Standardized Appointment Model
- Policy for Service Centers on Base
- Policy for PCM by Name
- Rule for Case Management
- Claims Standards Improved

Building TRICARE 2000

Military Health System

Set for Completion

- Active Duty Families Prime Remote
- Centralized, Automated Portability
- National Enrollment Card
- Standardized Appointments
- PCM by Name Implemented
- Case Management Implemented

Providing for Providers

- Direct Care System
- Managed Care Support System

Delivering the Promise

Military Health System

Retirees and Families Aged 65 and Over

Testing --

- TRICARE Senior Prime
- Pharmacy Benefit
- TRICARE Supplement
- FEHBP Participation

Focusing on the Future

Military Health System

- Enhanced Collaboration
- New Generation of Contracts
- Web Based Applications
- Restore Confidence

Promoting the Message

TRICARE = World Class Health Care at Peace and at War

Military Health System

TRICARE 2000

The Future of the Military Health System

Dr. Sue Bailey
Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs